Restricted Trade Mark Licence

Dear Mohammad,

Thank you for your recent interest in our Moodle™ software and your desire to use certain trade mark(s) owned by Moodle Pty Ltd ("Moodle") or one of its associated entities. This letter seeks to ensure that any use of "MOODLE" does not infringe our exclusive trade mark rights or violate our trademark policies (available here: <https://moodle.com/trademarks/>).

Without the licence granted herein, you do not have authority to use the word "MOODLE" in a domain name or within the contents of your website. You may only use the word "MOODLE" when referring to our software within the confines of lawful fair use and to describe your services around the MOODLE™ software platform. We regularly see third parties use the alternative of "Learning Management System" or "LMS" to resolve description issues.

We have assessed your request and hereby offer you a restricted licence to use the trade mark outlined in the Schedule in accordance with the terms attached and the agreed use as proposed in your request.

The more elaborate terms of the licence granted to you are attached to this letter.

Ultimately our goal is to protect the Moodle™ project as an open-source software platform for the benefit of the whole Moodle community. We need your cooperation in doing this.

This letter is intended to take effect as a deed.

Your faithfully

K E Rose
